- Educates casino guests regarding responsible gambling and player health through various mechanisms including daily interactions and activities at the GSICs and on the casino floor, new hire orientations, refresher trainings and Problem Gambling Awareness Month (PGAM)
- Hosts GSIC educational open houses and events

Program Development:

- Helps assess the needs of players, casino staff and host and surrounding communities to determine best approach to programming
- Develops new ideas and concepts to implement into future activities and events
- Incorporates latest research into educational efforts
- Adheres to evaluation protocols as instructed by third party researchers
- May develop and deliver presentations on emerging topics relating to responsible gaming and priority populations
- May assist with other outreach initiatives relating to responsible gaming including but not limited to tabling at events, riding buses that go to the casino, community presentations and higher-level capacity building projects
- May assist with other trainings relating to responsible gaming

Onsite Support and Referral:

- Provide compassionate and empathetic listening to all visitors to the GSIC and through chat, text, and phone services
- Plan and execute appropriate brief intervention and referral strategies for guests or staff exhibiting problem gambling behaviors
- Assist any individuals with concerns about a family member or friend struggling with gambling
- Carefully explain and lead interested patrons through the voluntary self-exclusion program application and process
- Stay current on outside resources that are available to anyone who is struggling with their gambling and be able to articulate these options in layman's terms
- Be able to successfully conduct in-person and remote voluntary self exclusions (VSEs) and reinstatements

Casino Staff Training:

- Develop and deliver new hire and refresher training sessions to casino staff (and also regulatory staff, as requested)
- As requested, attend casino staff meetings to add relevant information from GSA/GSIC perspective
- Build effective working relationships with casino staff (and MGC)

Ongoing professional development and administration is important. You will also:

- Participate in relevant annual professional development pertinent to job responsibilities
- Complete MGC and Council required paperwork and data collection
- Maintain supplies and operations for the GSIC

Plus, a willingness to perform other duties as appropriate.
