Self-Help Resources for Video Gaming and Digital Addiction

Game Quitters is an educational resources, support community, and advocacy organization for those who want to quit playing video games or learn healthier gaming habits. The forum has members from 95 countries who provide peer support through journaling, tips, strategies, and friendship.

Game Quitters has a private Facebook group called the Game Quitters Parent Support Group. The group is for parents and loved ones looking for support for their children's video game or technology addiction challenges.

Gaming Addicts Anonymous is a fellowship of people who support each other in recovering from the problems resulting from excessive game playing. CGAA is not affiliated with any political agenda, religion, or outside interests. Our single purpose is to abstain from video gaming and to help others find freedom from compulsive gaming. The organization offers a variety of in-person and virtual meeting options around the U.S. and world.
